NEW APPOINTMENT AT LOYOLA

Very Reverend Patrick G. Malone, S.J. announces the appointment of Miss Angela Burke as Director of Public Relations at the College.

Prior to her Loyola appointment, Miss Burke was Director of Public Relations for the Royal Commission on the Status of Women in Canada and in 1967 was Public Relations Supervisor of Centennial Programs for the Centennial Commission in Ottawa.

She has acquired extensive media experience with the Toronto Daily Star, the Globe and Mail and as New York correspondent for the Kemsley Papers of London. Her assignments included Press Gallery reportage and feature writing throughout North America, Europe and Mexico. Her feature articles have been published in Maclean's Magazine, Weekend, Perspectives, Chatelaine, the Star Weekly and the Canadian Bar Association Journal.

She has acted as hostess-interviewer and script writer for 'Afternoon Edition', a CBC-TV afternoon show from Ottawa, and has radio experience as commentator on public and private stations.

Miss Burke is a graduate of McGill University and studied journalism at Columbia University.
